is conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(4) An entry in respect of the declaration in the minutes of the meeting is also conclusive evidence of that fact without the proof.

(2) If a member appoints more than one proxy, the proxies so appointed are not entitled to vote on the resolution on a show of hands.

(3) On a vote on a resolution on a poll taken at a general meeting—

(a) every member present in person has 1 vote for each share held by him or her; and

(b) every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a member has 1 vote for each share in respect of which the proxy is appointed.

(4) This article has effect subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares.

41. Votes of joint holders of shares

(1) For joint holders of shares, only the vote of the most senior holder who votes (and any proxies duly authorized by the holder) may be counted.

(2) For the purposes of this article, the seniority of a holder of a share is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the register of members.

42. Votes of mentally incapacitated members

(1) A member who is a mentally incapacitated person may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by the member's committee, receiver, guardian or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or guardian appointed by the Court.

(c) is authenticated, or is signed on behalf of the member appointing the proxy; and

(d) is delivered to the company in accordance with these articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting in relation to which the proxy is appointed.

(2) The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

(3) If the company requires or allows a proxy notice to be delivered to it in electronic form, it may require the delivery to be properly protected by a security arrangement it specifies.

- (45) A proxy notice may specify how the proxy appointed under it is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions dealing with any business to be transacted at a general meeting.
- (46) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be regarded as—
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the general meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

44. Execution of appointment of proxy on behalf of member appointing the proxy
 If a proxy notice is not authenticated, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed the appointment to execute it on behalf of the member appointing the proxy.

46. Effect of member's voting in person on proxy's authority
 A proxy's authority in relation to a resolution is to be regarded as revoked in the circumstances set out in section 805 of the Ordinance.

(49) A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of the meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of the member.

47. Effect of proxy votes in case of death, mental incapacity, etc. of member appointing the proxy

(50) A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy notice is valid despite—

- (a) the chairperson of the meeting proposes the amendment at the meeting at which the special resolution is to be proposed; and
- (b) the amendment merely corrects a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the special resolution.

This is the exhibit marked FGA referred to in the Declaration of ANWAS'EV IGOR declared before me on 29 JUN 2020, KO Chin-hung to in the Declaration of AFANAS'EV IGOR

(b) the instrument of transfer is not accompanied by the certificate for the share to which it relates, or other evidence the directors reasonably require to show the transferor's right to make the transfer, or evidence of the right of someone other than the transferor to make the transfer on the transferor's behalf; or

(c) the transfer is in respect of more than one class of shares.

(2) If the directors refuse to register the transfer of a share under paragraph (1) or article 2(2)—

(a) the transferor or transferee may request a statement of the reasons for the refusal; and

(b) the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferor or transferee who lodged it unless the directors suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

(3) The instrument of transfer must be returned in accordance with paragraph (2)(b) together with a notice of refusal within 2 months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the company.

(4) If a request is made under paragraph (2)(a), the directors must, within 28 days after receiving the request—

(a) send the transferor or transferee who made the request a statement of the reasons for the refusal; or

(b) register the transfer.

36. Transmission of shares

If a member dies, the company may only recognize the following person or persons as having any title to a share of the deceased member—

(a) if the deceased member was a joint holder of the share, the surviving holder or holders of the share; and

(b) if the deceased member was a sole holder of the share, the legal personal representative of the deceased member.

37. Transmittees' rights

(1) If a transmittee produces evidence of entitlement to the share as the directors properly require, the transmittee may, subject to these articles, choose to become the holder of the share or to have the share transferred to another person.

(2) The directors have the same right to refuse or suspend the registration as they would have had if the holder had transferred the share before the transmission.

(3) A transmittee is entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which the transmittee would be entitled if the transmittee were the holder of the share, except that the transmittee is not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

(4) The directors may at any time give notice requiring a transmittee to choose to become the holder of the share or to have the share transferred to another person.

(5) If the notice is not complied with within 90 days of the notice being given, the directors may withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

38. Exercise of transmittees' rights

(1) If a transmittee chooses to become the holder of a share, the transmittee must notify the company in writing of the choice.

(2) Within 2 months after receiving the notice, the directors must—

(a) register the transmittee as the holder of the share; or

(b) send the transmittee a notice of refusal of registration.

(3) If the directors refuse registration, the transmittee may request a statement of the reasons for the refusal.

(4) If a request is made under paragraph (3), the directors must, within 28 days after receiving the request—

(a) send the transmittee a statement of the reasons for the refusal; or

(b) register the transmittee as the holder of the share.

(5) If the transmittee chooses to have the share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

(6) All the limitations, restrictions and other provisions of these articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares apply to the notice under paragraph (1) or the transfer under paragraph (5), as if the transmission had not occurred and the transfer were a transfer made by the holder of the share before the transmission.

88. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a member in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the member before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

Division 5—Alteration and Reduction of Share Capital, Share Buy-backs and Allotment of Shares

89. Alteration of share capital

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the company may alter its share capital in any one or more of the ways set out in section 170(2)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f)(i) of the Ordinance, and subsections (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of that section apply accordingly.

(2) An alteration made in the way set out in section 170(2)(c), (d), (e) or (f)(i) of the Ordinance may only be made by ordinary resolution.

90. Reduction of share capital

The company may by special resolution reduce its share capital in accordance with Division 3 of Part 5 of the Ordinance.

91. Share buy-backs

The company may buy back its own shares (including any redeemable shares) in accordance with Division 4 of Part 5 of the Ordinance.

92. Allotment of shares

The directors must not exercise any power conferred on them to allot shares in the company without the prior approval of the company by resolution if the approval is required by section 140 of the Ordinance.

Division 6—Distributions

93. Procedure for declaring dividends

(1) The company may at a general meeting declare dividends, but a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

(2) The directors may from time to time pay the members interim dividends that appear to the directors to be justified by the profits of the company.

(3) A dividend may only be paid out of the profits in accordance with Part 6 of the Ordinance.

(4) Unless the members' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

(5) Before recommending any dividend, the directors may set aside out of the profits of the company any sums they think fit as reserves.

(6) The directors may—

(a) apply the reserves for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied; and

(b) pending such an application, employ the reserves in the business of the company or invest them in any investments (other than shares of the company) that they think fit.

(7) The directors may also without placing the sums to reserve carry forward any profits that they think prudent not to divide.

94. Payment of dividends and other distributions

(1) If a dividend or other sum that is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means—

(a) transfer to a bank account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors decide;

(b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors decide;

(c) sending a cheque made payable to the specified person by post to the specified person at the address the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors decide;

(d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors decide.

(2) In this article—

This is the exhibit marked P-65 referred to in the Declaration of AFANASEVIGOR declared before me on 29 JUN 2020
KO Chau-hung
Commissioner for Oaths

specified person (指明人士) means a person specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors decide.

66. No interest on distributions

The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by—

- (a) the terms on which the share was issued; or
- (b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of the share and the company.

67. Unclaimed distributions

If dividends or other sums are payable in respect of shares and they are not claimed after having been declared or become payable, they may be invested or made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

The payment of the dividends or other sums into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

A distribution recipient is no longer entitled to a dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company, if—

- (a) 12 years have passed from the date on which the dividend or other sum became due for payment; and
- (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it.

68. Non-cash distributions

Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

For paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, if any difficulty arises regarding the distribution—

- (a) fixing the value of any assets;
- (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
- (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

69. Waiver of distributions

Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by executing to the company a deed to that effect.

But if the share has more than one holder or more than one person is entitled to the share (whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise), the deed is not effective unless it is expressed to be executed by all the holders or other persons entitled to the share.

Division 7—Capitalization of Profits

70. Capitalization of profits

The company may by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors capitalize profits.

If the capitalization is to be accompanied by the issue of shares or debentures, the directors may apply the sum capitalized in the proportions in which the members would be entitled if the sum was distributed by way of dividend.

To the extent necessary to adjust the rights of the members among themselves if shares or debentures become issuable in fractions, the directors may make any arrangements they think fit, including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments or adopting a rounding policy.

Part 6

Miscellaneous Provisions

Division 1—Communications to and by Company

71. Means of communication to be used

Subject to these articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under these articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which Part 18 of the Ordinance provides for documents or information to be sent or supplied by or to the company for the purposes of the Ordinance.

Subject to these articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such a notice or document for the time being.

- (2) A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

Division 2—Administrative Arrangements

72. Company seals

- (1) A common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors.
- (2) A common seal must be a metallic seal having the company's name engraved on it in legible form.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (2), the directors may decide by what means and in what form a common seal or official seal (whether for use outside Hong Kong or for sealing securities) is to be used.
- (4) Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least 1 director of the company and 1 authorized person.
- (5) For the purposes of this article, an authorized person is—
- (a) any director of the company;
 - (b) the company secretary; or
 - (c) any person authorized by the directors for signing documents to which the common seal is applied.
- (6) If the company has an official seal for use outside Hong Kong, it may only be affixed to a document if its use on the document, or documents of a class to which it belongs, has been authorized by a decision of the directors.
- (7) If the company has an official seal for sealing securities, it may only be affixed to securities by the company secretary or a person authorized to apply it to securities by the company secretary.

73. No right to inspect accounts and other records

A person is not entitled to inspect any of the company's accounting or other records or documents merely because of being a member, unless the person is authorized to do so by—

- (a) an enactment;
- (b) an order under section 740 of the Ordinance;
- (c) the directors; or
- (d) an ordinary resolution of the company.

74. Winding up

- (1) If the company is wound up and a surplus remains after the payment of debts proved in the winding up, the liquidator—
- (a) may, with the required sanction, divide amongst the members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the company (whether they consist of property of the same kind or not) and may, for this purpose, set a value the liquidator thinks fair on any property to be so divided; and
 - (b) may determine how the division is to be carried out between the members or different classes of members.
- (2) The liquidator may, with the required sanction, vest the whole or part of those assets in trustees on trust for the benefit of the contributories that the liquidator, with the required sanction, thinks fit, but a member must not be compelled to accept any shares or other securities on which there is any liability.
- (3) In this article—

required sanction (規定認許) means the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32).
